Code of Conduct for CNC Players

As a member of CNC, your behaviour is a direct reflection of Currambine Netball Club. Currambine Netball Club prides itself on having a positive culture of support and friendship, as well as promoting a healthy competitiveness. Our Club consists of volunteers who give up their free time, in order to provide you with a Club at which to play. Please read and acknowledge your acceptance of the following, by ticking and signing:

- Players are to accept the Coach's decisions and directions. Swearing or back-chatting your Coach will not be tolerated, and any such occurrence will result in the club's MPIO speaking with parent/carer about this behaviour.
- Players should respect their fellow team members during games and training sessions by showing support and encouragement. Players are required to attend training and game days. Players should treat all team members as you would like to be treated. Do not interfere with, bully or take unfair advantage of another player.
- Players must notify their Coach of an inability to attend training or games. Please notify your coach directly. Do not rely on third parties (e.g. like other players). Players failing to follow these guidelines could be offered less court time, which will be at the Coach's discretion.
- At training, players are required to participate in all drills as requested by the Coach, to the best of their ability. Players are also to show respect towards the Coach, team managers and fellow team members at all times. As a member of a team, you are expected to put in 100% effort at all times.
- Players should consult with their Coach or team Manager if they have any concerns with the behaviour of any team member and not take it upon themselves to sort it out themselves.
- Any use of social media such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snapchat etc regarding fellow Currambine Club members and their families, Coaches, Umpires, CNC officials, JNA officials should be done so in a positive manner.
- Joondalup Netball Association Courts are alcohol, smoke and illegal drug free and any such behaviour is prohibited on the courts or surrounds.
- Players are to accept the umpire's decision. Swearing, arguing and back chatting umpires will not be tolerated, and any such occurrence will result in your removal from the court or playing area.
- Players are required to play by the rules of netball, and in the spirit of the rules of netball at all times.
- Players will show respect to the opposition. Arguing, showing dissent, mocking or trying to provoke the opposition is not in the spirit of the game, and may result in your removal from the court.
